Einne Gabriel Gerhart Bunting passed away on May 11, 2020 at the age of 26. Einne was born in White Plains, New York on September 18, 1993 to Kenneth and Jane Gerhart Bunting.

Einne loved classic cars, reading, driving, swimming, anime, cosplay, and his two pitbulls. He will always be remembered as gentle, kind, and fiercely loyal to his family and friends. Einne had an unmatched ability to display empathy and vulnerability at every stage of his life, that will live on in every person he loved.

Einne graduated Woodlands High School in 2011, and immediately after, joined the US Marine Corps. He served his country honorably for 4 years, before joining the Marine Corps Reserves for another 4 years. Einne is survived by parents Ken and Jane Bunting, younger sister Kiara Bunting, Grandmother Eve Bunting-Smith and Grandfather Benjamin Bunting.

During his active duty, Einne spent 9 months deployed in Afghanistan, resulting in lasting trauma that permanently impacted his mental health. He suffered, as too many veterans do, from severe Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD). In lieu of flowers, donations to the Erie VA Medical Center in Einne's Honor would be appreciated. The Erie VA Medical Center aids in the treatment of PTSD and works to prevent suicide among veterans. The donation form link is <https://www.pay.gov/public/form/start/48119268/>.

“ Ken, I just learned of the death of your son, Einne. I am so sorry, both as a parent and as a former Marine, for your loss, Your son, his Mom, you, and all of his loved ones are in my prayers. May he rest in peace and may his Mom, you, and all of his loved ones be comforted by your memories of him. Semper Fidelis!

“ Ennie was a friend I met online, on a Discord server. He would share with us some stories of his time in service as a Combat Engineer, and helped me get a bit of a perspective of the Marine Corps before I joined. One of my main inspirations for making it through. I specifically remember him helping me the night I got in trouble at the barracks and was freaking out. Regardless of how late it was that night, he was there for me and did what he could do to help me calm down. Was really not in a good place at the time and he went above and beyond to help me through the situation. He really cared for those around him and would take that extra step to do so. It is unfortunate to see such a good man pass.

“ Dear Ken, Jane, and Kiara,

I offer my heartfelt condolences. It is with great shock and sadness I received the news of Einne's passing away. Many years ago, I served Memorial as a Sunday School teacher and Youth Pastor. Einne and Kiara were really active children in both the Sunday School and Youth group. I remember Einne as this energetic, loving, and caring young man who loved God, God's wonderful people, and the church he was a part of. As a kid, he loved organizing Christmas Pageants and he was very involved in various outreach programs of the church. I fondly remember those beautiful memories of fun and fellowship. May the Peace of God Almighty that surpasses our human understanding surround us and comfort us as we celebrate Einne.

With Prayers,
Varghese

“ I did not know this beautiful young man but I know his father and grandmother who are pillars in our community!! I had just spoke to Ken in March and inquired about his children and mother. I have a profound respect for our military having been a child of a military man who was deeply affected by his service to our country and who also died as a result of his service. May god be pleased with this young man and may he comfort his family!! I am deeply saddened by this and I am praying for him and his family. May god be merciful in this hour.

“ Dear Jane, Ken, and Kiara,

I wish I could give you a big bear hug right now. I remember the days when Kiara and I used to have playdates at your house. Kiara and Einne would bicker, in the amusing and loving way that siblings do. But more than that, I remember Einne as a funny, cool, big brother who wanted to protect Kiara from boys and other bad things in the world. He was super tall, but he always played gently with Harley and Madison, these two tiny poodles who weren't even a quarter of his size. I could tell they loved him, too.

I watched the online service, and I cried after hearing Ken's tribute to Einne. My family and I are heartbroken over your loss.

Sending love and virtual hugs,

I am so incredibly sorry for your loss. I am devastated and heartbroken that Einne is no longer with us. He came to visit my classroom last year and we had such meaningful conversation.

I am so honored that I was able to be his teacher way back in middle school and continue to watch him grow throughout high school. He was an incredible young man....kind, intelligent, funny and above all a true gentleman.

I know that your hearts are broken and I will continue to pray for Einne and for your family. Sending lots of love and prayers.

Always had a joke to tell, or a way to get around Ms. Calhoun's strict instructions. Even when Ms. Calhoun would call out Einne on his jokes or pranks during practice, she would be mad at first but then it would always quickly go away. She knew we always needed a moment of levity and Einne was always that.

My heart goes out to the Bunting family for their loss.

So, so many memories over so many years including our special dates from the time he was a very little guy to when he would then take me for our special tea. He always liked what I cooked for him but his favorite was my pot roast. Loved it so much that I really think last time he came to visit his Aunt Chew, we thought he was going to be sick he ate so much. Love you forever Einne. Thank you for loving me.

In the words of a sermon written by the late great James Weldon Johnson, "Weep not, weep not..., (he) is resting in the (arms) of Jesus." Einne will always be with you in spirit and memories shared as well as passed along through "the word" in the cultural tradition of keeping our family members with us from one generation to the next. Celebrate his life, always. May God comfort you and your family: Einne's immediate family and all as you experience, then transition through this time of grief and sadness.

“ Extremely sad to hear the news of Einne's passing away. At the same time, I'm comforted by beautiful memories that come to my mind. Many years ago, I served as the youth pastor of the church that Einne attended along with his sister and parents. I remember him fondly as the most helpful kid who was very involved in the church and all youth programs and outreach activities. May God provide peace and comfort that surpasses our human understanding.

“ My Einne was in my Sunday School class. Always helping others, cooperative, responsible, funny. When he grew to make me feel vertically challenged, he would gently lift me off the floor so I could hug him. I will always hold him close to my heart. Rest in peace, dear one.

“ Einne is and was a Great individual to be around even when he was having a rough day he let it all go with his jokes and remarks to others he really knew how to make a game and any conversation to be interesting. Einne never had a dull moment during the months knowing him. I truly felt like I knew him longer than eight months, Einne my friend, and my brother rest in peace.

“ I remember my young friend as child wide eyed and ready to take on the world. Nothing could stop him, he called me the guy. The name would stick forever! We would talk from time to time about military issues and how to handle them. Make no mistake Einne was a Soldier and he served our nation with honor! I'm gonna miss him so much! His cocky demeanor, his smile, willingness to lend a hand and his laugh. We love you so much and wish we had one chance to tell you! We will never lose your memory, God Keep you Always! Zig & Linda
