“ Dear Judy and Colleen: This is a time of great sadness for you but there is consolation in knowing that Marie is at home with the Holy Family. She has left behind a legacy of memories to nourish you on your earthly path and as the poet says "Death leaves a heartbreak no one can heal but LOVE leaves memories that no one can steal,"

So at this Easter time be comforted by the message of the Resurrection and remember the words of St. Augustine who reminds us, "We never lose those we give to God."

Marie's earthly work is done and she is now receiving her reward.

“ Colleen and family, I remember your mom when we were in Assumption together. She was a sweetheart. I used to run into her in shoprite on occasions, her beautiful smile never changed. My condolences to the family

“ Mrs. Sidorik,

I will always remember your shining eyes and bright smile. When Judy and I became friends and she invited me to your home for dinner and weekend sleep-overs, you welcomed me with open arms and treated me like your own daughter. You ALWAYS had kind words to say to me, and about others. I will never forget you, nor the way you made me feel. Thank you for bringing such sunshine into our world; you will be greatly missed. Keep watch over those still walking on earth. And find peace in the arms of Jesus.

With love and gratitude,

“ I had the privilege of bringing the Eucharist to Marie for the past few months. But what developed was a beautiful friendship. She continually amazed me with her positive attitude, her strong faith and her love for her devoted family. And she always gave ME a blessing before I left her! She will always have a special place in my heart and I know for sure now that I have my own angel looking over me. Rest in His arms Marie. You will be missed.

“ Marie Sidorik was my mother-in-law and I loved her dearly. I first met Marie in July 2017 after her daughter Judy, (now my wife) and I began dating. Marie and I made an instant connection, spiritually, emotionally, and theologically. We both loved the LORD and together, we studied portions of the Bible and even watched our favorite television ministries together on many occasions, most recently while she was recovering from pneumonia at a local rehabilitation facility. Marie was among the most honest, kind and tender women I have ever known. She was a woman of great character and exhibited steadfast courage and valorous qualities like many of the women of the Bible about whom we continue to read. She surely could be included with the likes of Sarah, Rachel, Leah, Rebecca, Mary, Priscilla, Susanna, Joanna and more. She was very special to me and to all who had the privilege of knowing her in the Cortlandt Manor community and well beyond.

Marie and I had both been deeply wounded over the years by individuals, even at times by family. Those experiences and events brought us even closer and the shared empathy that resulted is something I have never enjoyed with another human being. She understood life's difficulties, be they health problems, personal struggles and other challenges. Despite only being in each other's lives for less than 2 years, I can write unhesitatingly that Marie has made a lasting, indelible and profound impression on me that will never go away. Nor would I want it to.

Rest well Marie and enjoy you reward in Heaven,

Michael Rosenberg

“ Mom, a mother's love is something that no one can explain. A bond that is made of deep devotion and sacrifice, it is endless and unselfish and enduring come what may for nothing can destroy it or take that love away.

It is far beyond defining, it defies all explanation, and it still remains a secret like the mysteries of creation. It is evidence of God's tender guiding hand.

My love for you is immeasurable. Thank you for giving me the "gift of life" because without it, I would never have experienced the glow of your beauty, the beauty of life's brightest gems!

Your wit, zest for life and inner beauty was contagious and your faith in Jesus never wavered during all your hardships and illness. I am beyond heartbroken but will hold on to your words spoken to Michael and I "that we will be ok", let me go.

My faith tells me that no matter what lies ahead of me, my Angel Mom is already there in heaven.

I love you always and forever,
Your loving daughter Judy

“ I will always treasure my memories of growing up close to my Aunt Marie. The family dinners, holidays and just being part of this wonderful family was a blessing. I will be forever grateful that I got to see her again in the last couple of years after not seeing her for many years which always saddened me. She's with my dad, her two other brothers, her mom and dad and son in law. Fly high Aunt Marie.
